2015

EDITORIAL

Hello and welcome to Finland, ISW 2015 Helsinki! This year we are heading to the western parts of Finland where we will be visiting some companies during the days and having fun at evenings. Some of you might not recognize what time it is during the days because it is always dark during winter. You will not see the sun so prepare to cheer yourself up with alcohol and get rid of your misery in the sauna. There is a lot of program in one week and I hope everyone will get some good memories. Atleast those who can remember.

Here's some things you might want to know before screwing things up:

- Remember to drink before, while and after the sauna.
- Don't roll in yellow snow after the sauna.
- Leave the polar bear riding for the professors - too dangerous if you don't know what to do.

Hope to get to know as many of you as possible. Let's make this an epic journey!

THE BOARD

The Chairman

Peetu "Stache" Westenius

He is the founder of the notorious Westenius'8 criminal team. Bribing the authorities, blackmailing companies and acquiring allies are Peetu's main responsibilities.

Peetu may use his mustache to hypnotise you while repeating: "Mitä näitä nyt on..."

The Secretary

Villiina "Wild card" Ikäheimo

Villiina has the ability to keep track of everything around her and keeping the rest of the team informed. After been raised by a rival criminal group called "Prosessiteekkarit" she decided to put her skills to the test and join the Westenius'8. No one knows what she is really up to.

The Host

Sami "Rähinä" Kinnunen

This man has more strength than you would first think. He can carry ten bags of money while moving 40 kph (100 kph with ten cases of beer). Sami's badass nature requires him to brawl with everyone who comes between him and his share.

The Hostess

Jani "Tshernobyl" Jylhä

Jani has the knowledge to cook poisons that can be used to silently intoxicate people during heists (and parties). Meddling with ingredients has altered her looks and created her a deep hatred towards onion.

OF OUR GUILD

The Excursion Master

Ise “Breaker” Iduozee

Keeping contact with manufacturers lets Ise know all the tools to break into a vault. He prefers drilling and huge loads of explosives. This guy is also ready to make the party go BOOM! when necessary (always).

The Treasurer

Severi “Getaway” Ojanen

Severi knows where, when and most importantly how the money moves. As a former trucker his driving skills with different vehicles makes him a valuable member for the team. Taking a drinking contest against this guy would be suicide.

The Councilor of Studies

Olivia “Mastermind“ Lehtimäki

Olivia is the main contact to the global criminal networks. She is a master at planning heists and has an eye for detail. Probably the only member in the team who knows what she is doing.

The Editor

Matias “Cryptic” Lehtinen

Spreading confusion and false information are what this man can do best. This helps out covering tracks and deceiving authorities. His subtle humour often leaves people more disoriented than amused.

CHAIRMAN'S GREETINGS

Glück auf you drunken bastards, and welcome to Finland! We're going to make sure your next week in this land of snow, sauna and Koskenkorva (really dry Finnish white wine) is going to be legendary. Our trip this year takes us to the western parts of our beautiful country, where we'll visit companies operating in mining and/or metallurgy. And of course we haven't forgotten to organize events for the evenings, when we just might have a beer or two.

While in Finland you should try our world famous "total dehydration package" if you absolutely want to get hammered. In it you first drink a lot, then go to sauna and repeat as many times as needed. You should also try rolling in the snow or going for a swim in a hole on the ice after a sauna, it really wakes one up.

Also:

- Don't eat the yellow snow, and sing as much and loud as you can
- Always drink with your dominant hand
- Sleep only in the bus
- And if you see a penguin or a polar bear, you should probably stop drinking for a while.

I'm happy to see so many people attending this ISW Helsinki, let's have a great week!

Peetu Westenius

The Chairman of Vuorimieskilta

HOW TO SURVIVE

Protecting yourself from spills created by you or your friends is necessary. Use any provided survival suit to minimize the damage.

Consuming alcohol the right way can significantly reduce the risk of hangover.

You will come across many locked or closed doors (for example in the toilet). Calm down if you don't get the doors open and observe their mechanisms. In case of emergency find an alternative route:

If you want to be the first one in the sauna roll boulders on your fellow travellers' legs to slow them down.

Take advantage of people on the right moment.

Never go alone to swim into the frozen water or you will be shot.

SAUNA

Sauna is a typical Finnish building with the purpose of making people sweat and feel uncomfortable. Sauna is where you scorch your back with hot steam in an often inhumanly small space with too much men and too few women in it. Sauna is the culmination of Finnish attitude - when you haven't got anything useful to do, go do something stupid. Like drink too much, or start a meaningless fight with a random guy you've never seen before or go sit in a room that is too hot. Or, preferably, a combination of all of these.

Typical modern sauna has multiple wooden benches (Germans used to try steel...) at different heights and an oven on the floor. The oven, "kiuas", has rocks on top of it and water is thrown on them when the place doesn't feel hot enough. If the boiling steam isn't enough you can whip yourself with branches of birch tied together. You can also do this to a friend, they'd obviously do the same for you too!

Nowadays most of the urban saunas are electric, although a true Finn prefers a wood-heated sauna typically found in summer houses and countryside. The additional work to get the room warm is a pleasure you can't get with an electric oven where you merely turn a switch to heat up the sauna. If you wish to still add some to the experience, you may want to try out a traditional smoke sauna.

After you're done dehydrating yourself in the sauna, you usually want to cool off a little. This is commonly done by running into a freezing-cold lake or in the absence of one rolling or swimming naked in the snow. Due to lakes being thickly frozen for most of the year, breaking a hole through the surface makes for a nice exercise as well. A true Finn does this with a dull axe. After you've cooled off one way or another, you go back to the sauna just to show you haven't learned anything yet.

Now, the real reason behind all this is to give Finns an excuse for our favorite, and mostly only, hobby — drinking. You probably have a beer or two before you go to sauna, then a few inside just to hopefully try to cool off a little and then some afterwards to quench the thirst. When you repeat the process enough it doesn't take long to get into a fancy happy mood. Drinking and sauna actually go so hand in hand that it's often hard to distinguish one from another. In commonday talk the two are almost synonymous which might confuse an outsider at first.

Not only being a luxury for every man, sauna is also a part of equality between sexes. Regardless if men and women go to sauna at the same time, they are always naked. Sauna is a place where every man and woman can relax and not to think about their appearance. Sexual tensions are left in the dressing room.

Where did sauna come from then? Originally it was just a place to get clean and warm. But due to the rarity of both of these, the ancestral Finns grew to worship sauna houses as holy places. Sauna elf was a spirit you had to keep happy or it'd burn down your sauna and both the newborn and dead were kept there. For an ancient Finn, bathing in sauna was truly being one with spirits. It might be so nowadays too, but mostly in a different meaning.

FINNISH GAMES

”DON’T COME BACK FROM THE SAME HOLE!”

This game needs 2-30 players. The idea of this game is very simple: You dive in to the lake through a hole in the ice, but DON’T COME BACK FROM THE SAME HOLE.

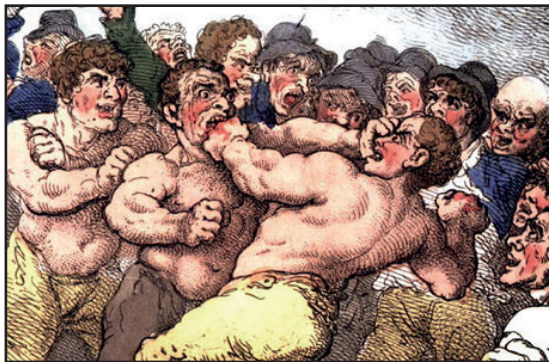

First make several holes on the ice then start diving. The starting hole will then be sealed off. Winner is the one who manages to stay alive.

OBS! On the most simple version there can be many winners.

For a more challenging dip you can:

- a) Be seriously wasted, which means at least 0.2 percent blood alcohol level.
- b) Have only one hole open. All other holes are sealed off.
- c) Make hole distances exceptionally long. At least over 30 meters.
- d) Dive with a bag of concrete.
- e) Have your hands tied with your ankles.
- f) Play the sudden death mode. Only the first one out gets out.
- g) Do playoffs. Dive head to head with sudden death rules until there is only the winner left.
- h) Do all the above

Don’t be a nerd!
Just play!!!

”TURPAKÄRÄJÄT”

This is one of my personal favourites but it’s fairly hard to learn so pay attention as you read through the directions. For this game you need a bar and a hot dog stand. Make sure that the hot dog stand is fairly close to the bar. You can always disguise a wall or build your own hot dog stand lookalike.

First wait until the bar closes and a queue starts forming in front of the hot dog stand. Then start randomly picking a fight with the people on the queue. Try getting as many people irritated as possible.

The winner is the one who gets most people to fight. You can range the time limit according to your own abilities. In five minute game you have to get the whole queue irritated at the same time in order to get a decent score.

“KILLER PENGUIN BASH”

Unlike all the other games listed, this one is exceptionally easy. For the basic rule game you only need a flock of penguins and you might want to bring along a basic club or hockey stick. It's just a question of preferences. A golf club or a frozen salmon are quite popular at the moment.

When you find the killer penguin flock start bashing!

You might want to set a time trial of 2-5 minutes and see how many penguins you can bash. As an alternative you can find out who kills 50-100 penguins the fastest. Note that the killer penguins will no doubt to fight back, so safety goggles or sun glasses are advisable.

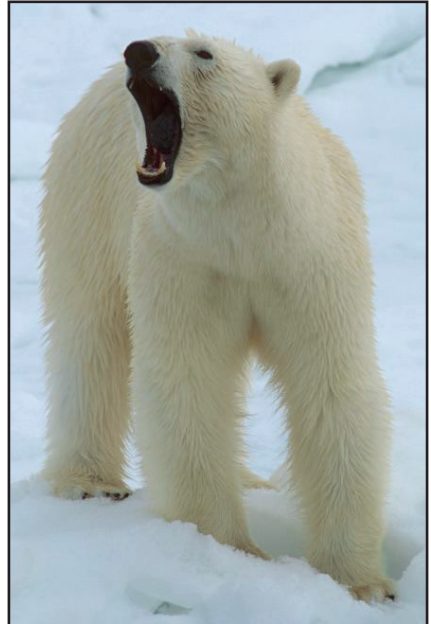

If you find penguins too hard to handle, you can practise with bashing a seal or two.

“POLAR BEAR RUN”

As you might have figured out all finnish games are very simple and this one makes no exception. What you need is a stick and a polar bear. Possibly a hospital and a funeral home to go along.

First find a polar bear and a stick. Poke the polar bear with the stick untill it get's annoyed or even irritated. When the polar bear starts coming at you STOP poking and run like hell. If you can outrun the polarbear you'll be the person of the day and you'll get one more story to tell to your grandchildren. If you can't... Well, you won't make a beautiful corpse.

Please notice that running in snow is very difficult.

FINNISH DRINKS

Ice-cold beer

1. Make sure it's really cold outside, like really cold.
2. Place a can of beer on a table or some other stationary surface.
3. Guard the beer for an hour or two, so that no thirsty miner will drink it.
4. Open.
5. Wait for the Spring.

Nuclear fallout:

- 4 cl Jaloviina
- 4 cl Tequila
- 4 cl Sour milk

Mix everything up and think "what the hell am I doing?"

Tervahauta:

- 4 cl Tar liqueur

Mix Whiskey and Jaloviina. Pour the Tar liqueur gently on top of the mix.

JUHLAT, JUBILEUM

PERVERTS OF SOCIETY

We're the perverts of society.
We're the worst you've ever seen. We're a bunch of loud mouthed bastards.
We're the mining engineers.

On the border of Antarctica, where the Yanks have never been, lies a body of a polar bear, fucked to death by an engineer.
We're the perverts ...

We don't climb upon a mountain, 'cause the slope is too
fucking steep.
We don't go down to the valley,
'cause the valley is too fucking
deep.
We're the perverts ...

Where the whales are floating in the sea with their asses full of sperm, there's a happy Trondheim miner just waiting for his turn.
We're the perverts ...

And if you wonder why the Santa Claus is walking the way he does, just come to Trondheim city
and spend a night with us.

WE ARE THE ENGINEERS

We are, we are, we are
